

Worthing Heritage Alliance

CONSOLIDATED CALENDAR OF EVENTS

DATE	MEMBER	EVENT DETAIL (N.B. Go to MEMBERS's Web Site (Link from WHA Home Page) for full details of the event) Dates shown in RED link to a poster publicising the event(s) Dates shown in GREEN link to a Report of the event(s)
16Aug2017	Canadian Roots	On the 16 th August 2017 a Battlefields Tour of 60 Canadians on route to Dieppe for the 75 th Anniversary of the Dieppe Raid, stopped at the Canadian Memorial on the seafront.
15Dec17	West Sussex Geological Society	Xmas Meeting.
9Jan18	Worthing Archaeological Society	Robert Turner: The First Brexit How Britain became an island and its effect on Neanderthals, Mesolithic and Neolithic Man. Over the past 460,000 years Britain has been separated from Europe several times with the final split in 6,200 BC when the disaster of Dogger Land had a great effect into the Mesolithic peoples of that time. Recent discoveries by Imperial College London, operating from Littlehampton, have now been able to draw a picture of "what leaving Europe" meant in times past.
16Jan18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Roger Mayhew 'The War on a Postcard'
18Jan18	Sussex Family History Group	AGM Followed by Q & A Session and "Saving your Family History at the Keep"
13Feb18	Worthing Archaeological Society	Rob Wallace and David Millum: Bridge Farm 2011 to 2017 Rob Wallace and David Millum, the directors of the Culver Archaeological Project, will give a summary of their excavations of the Romano-British settlement at Bridge Farm, near Barcombe Mills, discovered in 2011 during a geophysical survey for Margary's London-Lewes road. They will include a brief background to CAP as well and some initial thoughts about how this 1st to 4th century settlement fits into the wider context of southeast Britain in the Roman period and why it qualified for earthwork defences during the late 2nd century. The talk will cover the first 7 years of what looks destined to be a very long and regionally important investigation. John Pull Lecture Glass of wine or cup of coffee afterwards
15feb18	Sussex Family History Group	Dr. Janet Pennington "Shops & Shopping: The Small Shop Through the Ages"
15Feb18	West Sussex Archives Society	Shoreham Fort : Past, Present and Future
20Feb18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Martin Hayes 'Worthing in Victorian Times'
3Mar18	Worthing Archaeological Society	Worthing Archaeological Society will hold a Study Day in the Education Room of the Museum, between 10am and 4pm. Dr Matt Pope will talk about the Ice Age in Europe. Members £25, Guests £30.

13Mar18	Worthing Archaeological Society	AGM at 7.00pm followed by Lecture at 7.30pm Dr Geoff Mead: Source to sea – the River Adur 'Adur: Source to Sea' takes a visual journey from the sources of the river in central Sussex, through the broad plains of the Wealden clays and sands before heading south through the Downs and on to the Coastal Plain of West Sussex, ending its journey at the current river mouth. This talk looks at the geology, geography and history of this small but fascinating watercourse.
15Mar18	Sussex Family History Group	Les Mitchinson “The Treasures of the Parish Chest”
20Mar18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Ian Gledhill Talk and Music “Glamorous Nights”.
10Apr18	Worthing Archaeological Society	Dr Jaime Kaminski: The science of a Middle Bronze Age hoard In March 2011 a spectacular Middle Bronze Age hoard was discovered by a metal detectorist on land belonging to the Glynde Estate ‘Near Lewes’, East Sussex. Comprising nearly eighty artefacts and artefact fragments the hoard has recently been subject to scientific analysis. This presentation will consider what the analyses tell us about the production of the artefacts in the hoard and the implications for Bronze Age craft production.
17Apr18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Mick Oakey ‘Everyday Life in Ancient Egypt’.
19Apr18	Sussex Family History Group	Colin Manton “Radicalism, Reform and : Brighton’s First Election 1832”
15May18	Friends of Worthing Museum	AGM
17May18	Sussex Family History Group	Dave Annal “Charles Darwin: A life through the Archives”
19Jun18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Louise Peskett 'The Wonderful World of the Regency Dandy'
21Jun18	Sussex Family History Group	Judith Kinnison-Bourke “My Oxford Canal Family: 1790 – 1950”
17Jul18	Friends of Worthing Museum	Members’ Afternoon – a ticketed event
19Jul18	Sussex Family History Group	Ian Waller “19th Century Emigration”
AUGUST	Sussex Family History Group	SUMMER OUTING – Date and Venue to be confirmed
20Sep18	Sussex Family History Group	Mark Phillips “A Brief Development of Arundel”

18Oct18	Sussex Family History Group	Ian Everest “Newhaven Fort – Then and Now”
15Nov18	Sussex Family History Group	TBA
13Dec18 (2nd Thurs)	Sussex Family History Group	Xmas Social – to be advised